Fall Vegetable Gardening

Tuesday, September 28, 2021 – Fall vegetable gardening is just as exciting as Spring! Join in as we discuss how to prepare the Fall vegetable bed, select which vegetables to plant and plan when to harvest them. You will be inspired to go home and plan your Fall vegetable garden in any sized landscape.

Perennials: Divide and Conquer!

Tuesday, October 26, 2021 – This hands-on class will teach you the proper techniques for dividing your perennials for transplanting and sharing. This is essential for plant health and FLOWER POWER!

Cherokee Ethnobotany – If Plants Could Talk...

Tuesday, November 30, 2021 – Master Gardener Tony Harris will share his expertise in this special presentation on the plants that were so significant to the life and culture of our native Cherokee people prior to the Trail of Tears. Tony oversees the Cherokee Garden at Green Meadows Preserve, a designated Interpretive Site by the National Park Service on the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail.
